

Introduction:

Shakti Samuha is established in 1996, as a power organization of human trafficking survivors. Facing so many difficulties and challenges, this organization registered in District Administration office, Kathmandu on 2000. Shakti Samuha is a free non-government organization. This is known as first organization establish by trafficking survivors, which is mention in TIP report on 2007.

Mission:

Trafficking survivors and women and children at risk of trafficking will be organized, empowered and aware, which will enable them to contribute to campaigns against human trafficking, protecting women and girls living in vulnerable conditions.

Vision:

- Trafficking survivors will be empowered to lead a dignified life in society.

Goal:

- The goal of Shakti Samuha is to establish a progressive society, devoid of trafficking and other kinds of violence against women.

Values:

- Trafficking survivors should have the same rights and freedoms as any other member of society.
- Trafficking survivors should lead the movement against trafficking, ensuring their own rights and those of others.
- No member of Shakti Samuha shall be discriminated against in their service to the organization.

Objectives:

Shakti Samuha has following objectives:

- To establish income generating and skills based programs that create a sustainable livelihood for trafficking survivors.
- To advocate and lobby for necessary changes to the law.
- To organize meetings and campaigns to raise awareness and minimize the risk of trafficking.
- To establish safe house and emergency support for the rehabilitation and reintegration of trafficking survivors.
- To manage and update data on trafficking survivors.
